Tony Pauly won the raffle which was a high of $75. The Backpack Program and Scholarship benefited.

What a stellar meeting, great program and excellent attendance. This should be the norm. Fred Marton was our speaker and told us about how he became a polio survivor. Above, Fred is pictured with Pat Shaffer, his wife Sylvia, Fred and President Andrew Ferri. Pat brought her poster board from a National Immunization Day that she and PDG Ted Shaffer attended.

The meeting was attended by a record number of guests. Pictured with PDG Jim Walko is former Mayor of Murrysville Walt Dollman. His is currently a Rotarian in Western Kentucky and lives on Lake Barkley. Also attending was Cindy Panigal, a Rotarian in Florida and formally from Murrysille, visiting for the birth of her first grandchild. Her son is a Murrysville police officer, sorry I did not get a photo. Other Rotarian visitors were DG Steve and wife Colleen Arnowitz, Mark Barnhart, Fr Benoit Alloggia, as well a Mary Kay Miller, Allison Bassett and Sylvia Marton.

It appears that I had my cell phone camera on 'live' so all the photos I took were actually little videos and difficult to post in this newsletter. Check out the FaceBook page for the little videos with Jenny Hartman and Jerome at the front table and several of the Lions Club members doing sight and hearing tests. Jim with the PT Group did balance testing (very interesting) so thanks to all. Most of the time we had more Rotary Club members than clients, ROTARIANS ALWAYS SHOW UP! Above, Jim and John, Mike, Bill Yant, Gene, and Tyler working hard.
